ArtFuel

the new Volunteer platform for RSSS Volunteers

The Royal South Street Society is launching a new platform - ArtFuel - to streamline and manage our Volunteer Database, Event Rosters, and Public Event Ticket Sales.

Anyone who attended the recent Volunteer Training has already met Mark DeRaad, the creator and visionary behind ArtFuel.

We're excited to now introduce you to the first step in the sign-up process today.

Signing up is ESSENTIAL for all volunteers who wish to help at our 2025 Eisteddfod.

This is the primary way volunteers will be able to log their availability for events and view their upcoming (and past) shifts with Royal South Street Society.

Volunteers who enjoy receiving our newsletters (but not actively volunteering) do not need to follow this process.

The First Step...

Create an ArtFuel log in name and password for your profile.

Click on the green link below...

What next?

Now that your profile is set up, you will receive emails as the competition season progresses, asking you to select your availability for various dates and sessions (you can already see an example in the system for the Calisthenics Solos on June 14 and 15)

ArtFuel then generates a Volunteer roster based on the information it has regarding your skills and your availability.

Complete your profile before June 30
